Intense violet red colour. Aromas of red fruits with delicate touches of wood. Soft on the palate, balanced with notes of plums and cherries.
Montepulciano D'Abruzzo, Alpino, Italy				£38
A smooth medium bodied red wine, made with solely Montepulciano grapes. The colour is dark red, the palate brings intense impressions of cherries and soft spices.
Côtes du Rhône 'Cuvee Mathilde', Clos Saint-Michel, France				£39
A well-structured, peppery Rhone, there is a lovely softness and supple feel to the fruit, with flavours of orange, strawberry and ripe plum.
Pinot Noir, Vidal Estate, New Zealand				£43
Ten months in French oak barrels gives the wine structure to add to the classic sweet raspberry fruit.
Lussac St Emilion, Chateau La Claymore, France				£59
Dark chocolate and macerated cherries on the nose lead to a satisfying weight of red fruit. The finish is complex and elegant.

ROSE WINE
